FRED DANIEL VAN DYKEN (aka LONG SOLDIER) - 719809
WASHINGTON STATE REFORMATORY
PO BOX 777
MONROE WA 98272

Born 5-4-58 at Helena, Montana, (Oglala Lakota), Fred's Native American "birth" parents named him Long Soldier--son of V. Long Soldier, grandson of Levi Long Soldier, great grandson of Albert Long Soldier--all of Pine Ridge, South Dakota. He was later adopted by the Van Dyken family & grew up in Montana. Shodair Children's Hospital refuses to provide Fred with any of his file information despite that Fred obtained court orders. Fred took his mother's name after being reunited with her & is an enrolled member of the Oglala Lakota (Sioux) tribe. He refers to his father as half breed, M.I.A." - Missing on Action.

At 5'10", 175 lbs, with Black hair, Brown eye, Fred works out a lot, reads and studies. He has not only a high school diploma, and AA (Associate Arts) Degree, but also a BA (Bachelor of Arts) Degree, is a Counselor on Religious subjects, has 2 years vocational technical training in welding, and 10 years experience as a Silversmith. Currently he is an Artist in prison and produces traditional Native American wares; his goal is an M.B.A. and his own business. He welcomes correspondence.

Probably wrongly convicted of Homicide in the 1984 shooting death of Missoula Montana Sheriff's Deputy Allen Kimery at a traffic stop, he was sentenced to Life Without Parole, and lost his last appeal. Daniel was previously at MONTANA STATE PRISON, and was Transferred out-of-state per Interstate Compact. A special website was set up for Daniel (Longsoldier) at <http://www.longsoldier-international.com> with a petition.] He is in need of an attorney, and also welcomes correspondence from supporters, political advocates, writers, authors, journalists & others Note from Daniel: "Mitake Oasin" ("We are all related.")
